

"What improvements in farm conditions would you suggest for Randall County?"

This question was asked to farmers, "suit-case farmers" and townspeople this week, with more varied results than we really expected.

It was found that farm conditions in Randall County are, as a whole, very good. Approximately 700 rural homes in the county have electricity, which comprises about 80 to 85% of the homes, and most of these homes also have modernly equipped plumbing facilities.

There are about 225 irrigation wells in the county, 24 of which were drilled last year and irrigation lines run on some 9,260 acres of land.

About 75% of the farmers in Randall county are contouring their land, some of them are using the diversion terrace with contouring. County Agent H. E. Shahan reported that he ran contour lines on approximately 8,014 acres of cultivated land last year and ran an estimated 36 1/2 miles of terrace and diversion terraces.

Improved tillage practice, such as stubble mulch and incorporation of trash and crop residue into the surface of the soil, has been encouraged in Randall County, and with good results so far; however, that is one point which, in the consensus of opinion, needs to be stressed more by farmers.

Suggestions by Randall County people for improving farm conditions are these:

H. E. Shahan (County Agent): "One big improvement would be more farm to market roads and more electricity and telephones in the rural homes. And of course plenty of rain in the spring for good crops, would certainly help the farmer. If something could be found to kill the bindweed and blue weed and other noxious weeds, it would be a great improvement."

Carl Wimberly: "The farmer needs more grain storage right on his own place, instead of the big fellow getting so much money for storage."

Bob Brooks (from Gruver): "If they want this country to amount to anything, then the suit-case farmers had better get back on the farm instead of living in town."

W. C. Black: "More rain."

Dick Terry: "Early to bed, early to rise, work like hell and economize!"

T. S. Stevenson, Jr.: "More rain and snow for better crops."

Malcolm Cashwell: "Plant trees on every section line to account as windbreaks."

Albert Byars: "One of the best things that is being done in other counties, is the new telephone system being installed, which makes the rural party lines operate just like the party lines in town. That would be a good thing in Randall County. Our REA is coming along pretty well, but there needs to be more extensions made there too."

Ben D. Beck: "Everyone ought to have REA. Everybody is entitled to a good modern home on the farm, and with as much money as is being spent elsewhere, it ought to be spent there. We could also do with less taxes."

Redmond Hand: "Good roads are the greatest thing we need, so the farmers can get to town to trade."

Mrs. L. A. Donnell: "Better roads and irrigation wells would come first."

Hosea Foster: "One of the best improvements would be better hard surfaced roads."

Jim Jennings: "More farm to market roads would be an improvement, and we are badly in need of more grain storage elevators."

Mrs. C. O. Elkins: "Electricity and good roads would help a lot. I would think, and the complete modernization of rural homes."

W. H. Hamblen: "We have got to be careful to preserve our soil from wind erosion, preserve the moisture in the soil, and practice mulching the top soil. We must be careful not to have another dust bowl. We have a good country if we'll just take care of it."

E. E. Plank: "Do a better job of farming. I am sold on contour farming than ever before; we should stay with it, but I'm not so strong for terracing. In the last few years I've seen cases where men with no water well on their place, but the right amount of contour made about as good a crop as the man with the well."

W. H. Harden: "I think a long range program should be started by the farmer to build up his land. He should grow a winter crop and plow it under in the spring. We can make the land produce more by building it up each year rather than to keep depleting it and putting nothing back into it."

Mrs. L. L. Byars: "Better roads, by all means!"

Pat Baber: "Rain has as much to do with farming conditions as anything else and there's not much anybody can do about that."

Lou Ella Patterson: "We're working this year on more trees in the county for wind breaks and landscaping, and I think that is one of the biggest improvements we can make."

Noah Amason: "I'd certainly like to have REA at my place, and I think electricity would certainly improve farm conditions."

Mrs. Erma Foster: "One of the most important things is rural electrification and planting of trees for wind breaks, and it would certainly help if farm to market roads were paved so people could get to town in bad weather."

L. G. Allen Was Taken to Walnut Creek, California

Easton Allen of Walnut Creek, Calif., was here last week to look after his father, L. G. Allen, who had been in the hospital for a week.

Easton left Friday morning on the train, accompanying his father to California. Miss Hazel Allen is at the home of another brother, Harper, and has a leave of absence from her work in Los Angeles for the balance of the year. She has been in poor health.

Mr. Allen will be in a rest home only a few blocks from his two sons and daughter, where they can give him personal attention. His health has declined rapidly during the past year. Mr. Allen is nearing his 85th birthday.

About 88% School Taxes Have Been Paid for the Year

Lee Foster, school tax collector, states that about 88% of the school taxes have been paid for the year.

The tax rolls for the Canyon Independent School District will total $154,000 this year. Cash collections for the year are now $136,000, and with the cash discount offered during December the total will amount to $139,800. This leaves a balance of unpaid taxes of about $14,000. Many taxes will be received by Mr. Foster by January 31, after which date all unpaid taxes become delinquent and will carry penalty and interest.

Edd Acosta Stallworth to Olive Marie Johnson on January 21.

Snow and sleet added 52 of an inch of moisture over the week end. January now shows a total of 3.47 inches of moisture.

Rain and sleet Saturday night brought .12 of an inch of moisture.

During Monday night .10 of an inch was added, while .30 of an inch fell in Canyon Tuesday and early Wednesday morning.

The temperature sagged to 4 degrees above zero in Canyon Tuesday morning. It had been predicted Monday night that sub-zero temperature would prevail, but slight moderation kept the mercury above the zero mark. A real blizzard had been predicted, but fortunately the wind did not rise and while it was cold, there was little discomfort in this area.

Schools in many towns over the Plains closed Tuesday in anticipation of the cold wave. Attendance in the Canyon schools was normal, and all busses ran without serious difficulty.

The temperature has moderated Wednesday morning, with prediction that the sun will shine again Thursday and the snow will melt rapidly.

Speeder Gets Fine of $38 in Justice Court on Friday

A youthful speeder drew a fine of $38 in the court of Justice of the Peace B. F. Machen Friday.

The heavy fine is in keeping with the movement on the part of peace officers to clear Canyon of speed maniacs.

Citizens of Canyon are urged to assist officers in the campaign. When you see a car speeding, get the number and phone the sheriff or the city hall.

A few heavy fines should halt those fellows who are in such a hurry.

Only Few Cattle Lost Because of Cold in January

January has been chalked up as a "cold" month, although good weather has prevailed about as much as the cold and disagreeable weather.

The loss of cattle has been confined very largely to those which had been shipped in from South Texas and had not become acclimated to Plains weather.

Former Resident on Short Visit Here

Bud Weber, former resident of Randall county, was here for a short visit with old friends late Saturday and Sunday morning. He was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Henry Weber, former residents of the county, who lived north of Canyon.

Mr. and Mrs. Weber were traveling in a trailer house and had been on an extended trip to the Southwest.

Bud lived with his parents in Michigan from the time they moved from Randall county until their death.

Poll Taxes Lag As Payment Date Nears Deadline

Poll tax payments are very light in Randall county this year.

The total payments last year were more than $500. This year payments so far total only about $100.

Payments in Canyon Tuesday afternoon had run up to $90.

R. M. Allred, deputy tax collector for the north part of the county, reported at the same time that poll tax payments totaled only $200. Mr. Allred stated that when citizens of South Amarillo came in to pay their taxes that too many were saying they did not wish to pay a poll tax this year because there were no elections in sight. No group seemed to be working for poll tax payments this year, as was the case last year when the primary elections and general election stirred up interest in political affairs.

Mr. Allred was out of his office for 26 days in December, having gone to the hospital on Dec. 26 and underwent two operations before his release. He is now able to look after the affairs of the county, but is still under his normal strength.

Citizens of Randall county are being urged by various organizations to pay their poll taxes this year due to the fact that it is almost certain that the legislature will submit important constitutional amendments, which will affect all persons in the state and county.

PIANO RECITAL

Mrs. Lee Foster will present some of her piano students in recital on Friday evening, January 28 at 7:45 o'clock in Fellowship Hall in the First Presbyterian Church. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Mrs. Milton Kiker Buried Saturday at Local Cemetery

Mrs. Nannie Mae Kiker, 77, widow of the late Milton Kiker, died at 8:30 a. m., Thursday at the Crosbyton Hospital. Mrs. Kiker had lived in Canyon for 20 years before moving to Crosbyton in 1946 to be near her daughter.

The funeral services were held at the Methodist Church in Crosbyton Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock. The body was brought to Dreamland Cemetery for interment by the side of her husband, who died in 1941.

A native of Kentucky, Mrs. Kiker came to Texas about 75 years ago. Her 77th birthday was on the sixth of this month. She was a member of the Methodist church.

Mrs. Kiker is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Fred Criswell, National City, Calif.; Mrs. Glenford Fowler, Crosbyton, and Mrs. O. B. McNeeley, Weslaco; three sons, Luther E. Kiker, Plovidada; Charles M. Kiker, Amarillo; and L. W. Kiker; two brothers, Emmett McCleskey, Tulsa, Okla., and L. W. McCleskey, Lincolnville, and a sister, Mrs. Elmer Grisham, Stephenville. Twelve grand children survive.

Last Rites at Big Spring For Miss Alice Wooton

Funeral services for Miss Alice Wooton, 82, were held at Big Spring Wednesday afternoon, January 19, at 3 o'clock in the Naley funeral home. She passed away Tuesday morning, January 18 at Big Spring. Miss Wooton was a sister of Mrs. C. S. Sanford of Canyon. Other survivors are four brothers, J. W. Wooton, Big Spring; C. P. Wooton, Gainesville; J. D. Wooton, Henrietta; and W. B. Wooton of Seymour.

Chamber To Hear Amarillo Pastor Feb. 11 at Dinner

The annual banquet of the Chamber of Commerce will be held on Friday, February 11 at the Methodist church.

Tickets will be on sale this week in charge of Jack Jennings and Ray Campbell.

Owing to the limited seating capacity of Fellowship Hall in the Methodist Church only 175 tickets will be sold. Those desiring tickets should buy them at once as the sale will close several days in advance of the banquet.

Rev. Leon Hill, pastor of the San Jacinto Baptist Church and one of the most popular banquet speakers in the Panhandle, will make the address.

Delbert Lowes is general chairman of arrangements for the banquet.

Dr. E. J. Cundiff Heads Dentists

Dr. E. J. Cundiff of Canyon was elected president of the Panhandle District Dental Society at the business session Tuesday.

The Society was in session in Amarillo Monday and Tuesday.

The federal census will be taken in the United States early next year. This census will settle a lot of arguments regarding population of the various sections of the country.

Until the federal census is taken there will continue to be much speculation regarding populations.

For instance, South Amarillo is now larger than Canyon, according to unofficial reports.

County Commissioner Charles Y. Johnson reported to the Commissioner Court Monday that he had driven the streets of South Amarillo, the territory which is in Randall county. He counted 1556 residences. This does not consider the business houses which are in that area.

A check was made Tuesday morning by The News on the population of Canyon. We found that there are 1039 water meters in Canyon, including both residences and business houses.

At the Southwestern Public Service Co., there are 960 residential meters and 140 meters in the business houses, or a total of 1100 meters.

The West Texas Gas Company lists 890 residential meters with a total of 1031 meters within the city limits.

This adds up to less than 1000 residences within the city limits which are served by one of three utilities.

If there is an average of four persons to the residences in South Amarillo, the population should be about 6200. And if there is an average of four persons to the residence in Canyon the population would total about 3800. This would give South Amarillo a population of nearly twice that of Canyon.

However, poll tax payments, sale of car license tags and attendance at the school in that territory does not reflect so large a population in South Amarillo as there is in Canyon.

This is one of the arguments which the federal census alone will solve when the census is taken next year.

D. S. Hill's Car Turned Over But No Great Injury

While going home Friday evening about 6:30 o'clock, County Commissioner D. S. Hill's car overturned south of Canyon on the highway. Mr. Hill escaped serious injury in the accident, but his car was badly damaged.

Mr. Hill states that he started to dodge a car on the pavement, and drove off the slab. The shoulder was wet and slick and before he could right the car it had headed into the ditch and overturned.

Mr. Hill was pinned under his car, but help arrived soon and released him from the wreck. He was brought to the hospital for examination but released when it was found he had not sustained serious injuries.

Neighboring Citizen Advises Canyon Citizens To Trade Here

We wish that each and every citizen of Canyon and Randall county could have heard a visiting speaker last week when he deplored the practice of so many Canyon people rushing out of town to do their trading.

This man has been in the grocery business in Amarillo for many years. He states that he advised Canyon people to come right back home and do their trading.

Just why do people rush away from home to do their shopping? Do they actually think that merchandise can be bought by merchants in big towns at a lower price than Canyon merchants pay?

No, they are convinced that they should rush away from home just to be going some place other than Canyon to trade with people whom they do not know.

The same is true of people of Amarillo, who rush down to Dallas; and Dallas folks go to St. Louis or Chicago; while folks in these cities think they should go to New York. And where to New Yorks go? To Paris or London of course!

We are very, very foolish folks when it comes to doing our buying.

Look around Canyon and see just how much stuff you have been buying out of town at higher prices than you would have to pay in Canyon. You would be surprised.

Advertising Rates in Canyon Are Lowest in the Panhandle

"Advertising rates are too low," stated an Amarillo grocer in Canyon last week.

To this The News wholeheartedly agrees. Advertising rates may be high enough in Amarillo, but according to circulation and service rendered, the rates of advertising in the Canyon News are entirely too low.

We are not hopeful that advertisers will come running to The News office in great droves, offering to pay a higher advertising rate. Our newspaper is trying to hold down rates as much as possible, but realizes just how much lower we are in advertising rates than the average country newspaper.

We called attention recently to the rates in a newspaper which has 500 less circulation than The Canyon News. The rates in our neighboring paper were being increased from 50 cents per inch to 60 cents per inch—because of the great increase in the cost of production.

We want to shout from the house top that when you buy advertising in The Canyon News you are getting the lowest rate charged by any newspaper in the Panhandle, and therefore are getting a real bargain.

A Bad Bill for Randall County

A bill is pending in the legislature to take away from the counties of Texas the authority to sell license plates for cars and trucks. The argument is advanced that the state can do a better job than the counties. It is also argued that the state will send to the counties as much money as the counties have been receiving.

Just talk to any county official before you become too much impressed with the new scheme.

In the first place, plates will not be available at all time as they are today. You will either have to wait until the state gets ready to send a man around to sell plates, or drive to some nearby city.

In the second place, the State Highway Commission is kidding about dividing with the counties. As soon as this authority is passed, you will see the state beginning action toward taking over all of this money.

It is a mighty poor law, and would be very, very hard on small counties like Randall, which has many miles of road to keep up.

A citizen questioned the authority of Governor Jester the other day to remove Jack Little from office. Well, we do not know whether or not the Governor removed Little, following the charge of drunkenness which is pending in Fort Worth. The only thing we do know is that the Governor must submit the names of vacation appointees to the Senate for approval. If the Governor did not approve Mr. Little, after appointment, all he needed do was tell Little that his name would not go to the Senate. That's the only authority the Governor has over state employees.

Talked to an old time printer the other day about colored printing. His prediction was that colored printing would not come into common use for many years. Newspaper presses are not yet built for general colored printing. And the cost is too high for general usage. Magazines have been forced into colored printing by the national advertisers who have a barrel of money to spend.

The liquor interests in Texas are going to propose the sale of mixed drinks. Prohibition forces reply that a state-wide prohibition amendment will be proposed in this session of the legislature. Unless the liquor interests are more careful and sponsor regulation rather than the open saloon, they are likely to see their business given another dose of prohibition.

We see that the legislature proposes to appoint a reconfiguration commission to revamp the Terrell election laws. That is the only method that could possibly be effective. Election laws are in such a mess that it will take considerable study to iron out all of the conflicting measures. Incidentally, why not abolish the poll tax provision while the legislature is at work on election measures?

A Good Man Resigns Position He Has Held With Honor to State

No truer words may be said of any man than to call Dr. D. A. Shirley "A good man."

Citizens of the Panhandle deeply regret that his health caused Dr. Shirley to resign his post with West Texas State, which he has filled with honor and distinction.

The Newsman has known Doug Shirley since he moved to Canyon in the fall of 1913. The Shirley family moved into the house which the News family was vacating. It has been our happy privilege to know the family intimately throughout the past 35½ years, since they moved to West Texas State.

Doug Shirley is known throughout this region as a man who accomplished much. No job was ever too hard for him to undertake. No job was too exacting in time or his strength for him to undertake. He worked hard at any job at hand.

Every citizen of Canyon and the Plains country hopes that it will not be long until Dr. Shirley will be recovered so that he may again be out and among his multitude of friends.

You Will Need Poll Tax Receipt For the Elections This Year

Yes sir and madam, you will need a poll tax receipt this year.

The legislature is mulling over a lot of constitutional amendments.

It is proposed to submit a constitutional amendment to abolish the poll tax. But you will need a poll tax receipt in order to vote to abolish the poll tax.

It is proposed to increase the pay of legislators' salaries; and a lot of other amendments. Among them will be one to revise the constitution.

Perhaps not all of these will be submitted to the voters this year.

But you cannot vote without a poll tax receipt. Arm yourself for a vote on or before January 31.

Local Needs Are Coming Up

Comments made last week by local citizens on the work of the Chamber of Commerce were interesting and brought out a number of needs of Canyon. However, most of the criticism and suggestions were problems of the city administration, rather than Chamber, which operates on a very small budget. Mayor W. A. Warren advises that when the City Commission meets next month that Chamber officials will be called upon to meet with the commission to discuss the problems. He recommends a long range program for Canyon, and invited citizens to express their opinion.

One of the first things that must be considered is a fire truck; another is the garbage and sewer disposal tax; another is the need of a central fire station and city hall on the present city property; another is a new city sewer system.

All of these call for the expenditure of public funds. When you go to spending the people's money city officials want to be sure that they are getting value received, and that the improvements are the most urgent and something that the people really want and need.

Dimes Bring Relief to Needy

One dime will not buy much in these days of inflation. But a lot of dimes soon make a sizeable amount of cash which will go a long way.

The March of Dimes is on.

In years past the people of Randall county have not been particularly excited about dimes. But polio struck last year among the children of Randall county. Parents were out a lot of dimes—many more dimes than we had contributed to the cause.

The polio fund cheerfully reimbursed the expense of these cases.

The people of Randall county are showing their appreciation by investing their dimes and their dollars in this worthy cause.

It is not too late to be a good citizen and give your share.

The Canyon Chamber of Commerce will hold its annual banquet on February 11. The sale of tickets for this affair will be limited in numbers. In other words, first come, first served. If you want to attend this affair better get busy and buy your tickets. Rev. Leon Hill of Amarillo will be the speaker. Rev. Hill is one of the most popular banquet speakers in the Panhandle. He has made a great hit all over the Plains, and Canyon is fortunate in getting him for this occasion.

The death of George Sheppard removed from the official family of Texas one of the finest and most efficient public servants that the state has ever had. Sheppard took over the office back in 1930 when the office was in a bad way. He has introduced order out of chaos, and ordered modern methods where antiquated conditions existed. The state has been very, very fortunate in having a fine public official like George Sheppard.

Senator Pepper of Florida has introduced a bill in Congress to repeal in whole the Taft Hartley law. Senator Taft has responded that he will offer a series of amendments which will seek to retain the best features of the law. In other words, Taft rightfully wants a labor law on the statute books rather than turn the labor racketeers loose to do as they please.

If we ever get to a big city during ice hockey season, we intend seeing a game. From appearance it looks about as cruel as a bull fight, but probably much more skillful.

BUT NOT VOTING

A scottish clergyman had a parishioner who was a rabid politician with distinct democratic leanings. One day when the parson called, he was told of a new litter of kittens.

"And do you think they'll be interested in politics?"

"Deed, yes, sir. They're Conservatives."

The parson was surprised, and even more so on his next visit, for he was informed they were Liberals.

"Och," said the old fellow, with a wink. "They've had their eyes open since you were here last."

THEY TAKE THE BLUE OUT OF MONDAY

WASH DRY IRON

A COMPLETE, modern electric home laundry not only takes the "blue" out of Monday, it's apt to take most of the work out of the proverbial "wash day."

With an electric home laundry in your home, you'll find yourself putting clothes to wash and dry, or ironing them whenever it's convenient...you won't be tied down any more by "wash day" or by a pile of ironing.

Washing's done automatically while you go about your other house work. Put the damp clothes in your dryer, and forget about them until you take them out, as dry and clean smelling as if they'd been on a "line" for hours. Then, you'll find it just a few minutes' work to go through an ironing with an efficient electric ironer.

See your appliance dealer soon about the advantages of an electric home laundry of your own.

"Outward Bound" Will Be Given February 8, 9, 11 by the Speech Department of West Texas State

Inspecting the beginning of work on a model set of the play, "Outward Bound," which will be presented in February by the Speech Department, are, left to right, Rosie Bates, Dickie Dye, president of Amarillo Little Theatre; Frances Townes, Paula Frazier, William A. Moore and Mrs. Oma Link Rowley, director of ALT.

Do you enjoy a perfect balance of intriguing suspense and grand comedy?

Would you like to spend an evening with worldly cares so completely forgotten that there is nothing left to mar your pleasure?

Are you one of those fortunate people who possess the ability to allow their imagination to run wild?

Then no doubt you are in the market to see the forthcoming offering of "Outward Bound," by the Department of Speech, February 8, 9, and 11.

"Outward Bound" is not an ordinary play, but deals with a most unusual problem in a most unusual way. You will see real people with real problems, but you will see those problems become of little importance in the light of the happenings of this play.

You will meet such people as a hard-boiled English businessman who worries about his ulcers, his big financial deals, and the stock market. You will also meet a ship's steward named Scrubby who is possessed with a rare and strangely satisfying philosophy of life. There is also a minister who seems quite unhappy about his calling, but does not know exactly what it is he is

Mrs. Midget

Perhaps the most unusual person you will meet in this play will be a quaint little English woman known as Mrs. Midget. The lady has a Cockney accent thick enough to slice. Mrs. Midget is richly endowed with the particular English ability to take life as it comes without any undue amount of grumbling and the play is enriched with a great deal of her enjoyable homespun philosophy.

In keeping with the unusual nature of this play, the setting will also be unusual in design.

Replacing the conventional stage setting will be the modern trend in staging known as intimate theatre. This idea of production has its most notable examples in Glen Hughes' modern Penthouse Theatre at the University of Washington, where a notable record of endless successes has been made and at Dallas' famous Theatre 49. This professional company is headed by Margo Jones, noted Broadway producer.

Intimate Style

In order to adapt the Branding Iron Theatre to intimate staging, the chairs will be grouped in a semi-circular arrangement around the central playing area, which will be directly in front of the stage. In this manner the audience may view all the action without any obstructions to hinder their view. The Branding Iron is particularly suited for intimate staging because of its low platform stage which permits entrances and exits without incurring difficulty.

The production is directed by William A. Moore, Dramatics Professor of West Texas State, and the technical director is Jack Walker, of the Speech Department. Both Mr. Moore and Mr. Walker are noted for their excellent work in play production and if past performances are any indication, "Outward Bound" should certainly meet the approval of its audience.

Dr. Ruth Lowes Attends Gathering

Dr. Ruth Lowes, Education Department, returned this week from a meeting with the Texas Association for Supervision and Curriculum Development which met in Dallas from January 13 to 15.

About one hundred supervisors and school curriculum consultants from over the state were in attendance. The special speaker was Dr. Walter Anderson, national president and member of the teaching staff of New York University.

Southern Speech Meet In Waco

The annual convention of the Southern Speech Association will be held in Waco April 4-9. The speech faculty of West Texas State will attend and it is hoped that arrangements can be made for some speech students to attend, also.

"This year's conference is the first ever to be held in Texas, and we feel that West Texas students have a rare opportunity before them," stated Crannell Tolliver, Head of the Speech Department.

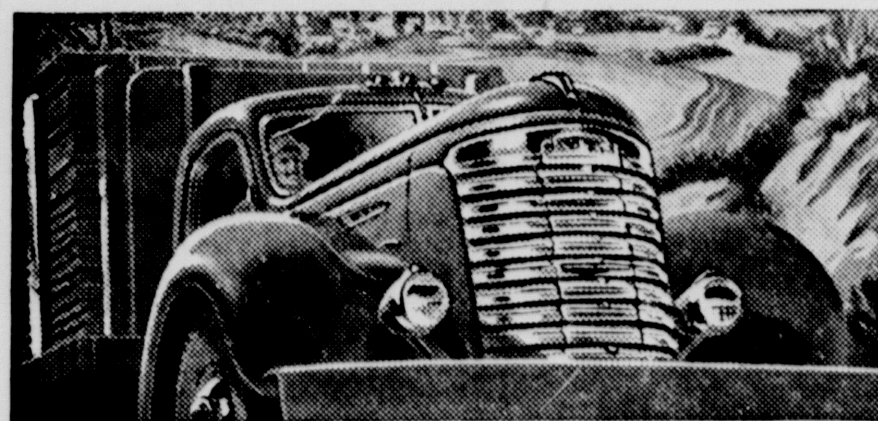

Mr. Truman is deciding to let Congress determine what proportion of campaign promises can be fulfilled without causing a taxpayers' revolt. The President has all of his promises crammed into his budget for the 18 months ahead and wants $6,100,000,000 additional from taxpayers to meet the bill. Congress is left to choose between the taxpayers and those who expect the good things from the U. S. Treasury.

HOW TO COLLAR A DOLLAR—AUTOMATICALLY!

DO YOU have trouble collaring dollars?

Do you find that after paying your bills and meeting your day-by-day expenses there aren't many dollars left to collar—to save for your future needs?

If you do, here's a bit of good advice! Here's how to collar those dollars-for-the-future automatically!

All you have to do is sign up for the Payroll Savings Plan! Then, regularly as clockwork, part of your earnings are put into U. S. Security Bonds.

Automatically, you start to build financial security, to store up dollars for things you really want—like a home of your own, or college for your kids, or a healthy retirement fund.

And the dollars you collar this way actually make more dollars. A $75 Bond will make 25 more dollars in just 10 years. You get back $100 in cash!

These U. S. Security Bonds help stabilize prices. WISE SAVING means more SENSIBLE SPENDING . . . Fewer dollars go to market to bid up prices on scarce goods.

And it's wise debt management, too. Every bond dollar that is built up in your Government's Treasury is used to retire a dollar of the national debt that is potentially inflationary.

IS YOUR SECURITY!

What About the Profits Average Run of Business

In one of his recent columns, David Lawrence wrote, "The chief trouble with the excess-profits tax is that it assumes a larger and larger demand for goods where as there are evidences now that supply is catching up with demand. At the very time when business needs to be encouraged, it is being discouraged."

The whole economy of this country is now based upon practically full employment, the maximum production that our factories can achieve, and steady and substantial expansion of all industrial resources. This is necessary both to protect our living standards and to finance our incredibly large annual government budgets. The excess-profits tax is predicated to the theory that business profits are out of all reason. Yet more and more of those profits have gone, not to investors and owners, but into plant expansion. And the moderate returns which have gone to investors are necessary if industry is to be able to obtain new financing when needed. If the excess-profits of any other tax deprives industry of adequate revenues, a general business slump is certain.

Furthermore, there is much misinformation about the size of profits. Mere dollar figures mean little in these days of inflation. As a simple example, it costs two to three times as much to build an industrial plant at present as it did before the war.

It is all very well to damn profits and the profit motive. But, whether we like it or not, they keep the economy alive and growing. They are at the root of high employment, high wages, opportunity to advance for all. Destroy them and depression will follow. There has already been too much loose political talk about cracking down on industry, which in effect means cracking down on employment.

Fred Lazarus, Jr., department store buyer: "There are types of businesses which may prosper despite general adversity."

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Misenheimer and son of Decatur, Ill. visited here last week with Mrs. Sarah Holman and Mrs. Charlie Sutton. They went from here to the Valley where they visited Mrs. Holman's brother, Elmer Brown, and also visited friends in Old Mexico, before returning to their home in Decatur.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Duckworth and Betty of Amarillo, and Mrs. Laura Duckworth of Vernon spent Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dan K. User and Peggy. This was the first time Mr. Duckworth had been out since he was injured in a car accident near Umbarger before Christmas.

Dean Acheson, as Secretary of State, has assurance from the President that the Department of State, and not the National Security Council, hereafter will have the dominant voice in shaping U. S. foreign policy. Policy decisions in the past have tended to rest on considerations of military strategy in event of trouble. The Security Council is dominated by defense officials.

Joseph Stalin is causing U. S. policy planners a little embarrassment by his sudden shift to peace as the basic Russian line. The Russians are set to try out a peace offensive that complicates U. S. plans for war preparation at home and abroad.

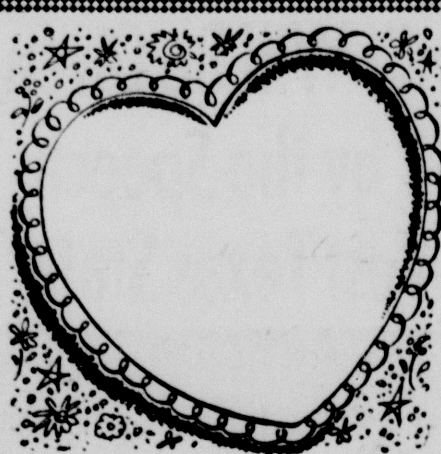

Senator Tom Connally, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, is insisting that the White House give his Committee more to say directly about foreign policy instead of informing it about policy decisions after they are made at the White House and in the State Department.

Senator Arthur Vandenberg is preparing to outline in more detail what the Republican position is on a bipartisan approach to foreign policy now that the Republicans are the minority party. There is much under cover stirring along Republican Senators in favor of taking issue with the Democrats on many points of foreign policy.

Senator Robert Taft, Republican leader in the Senate, is prepared to give the younger G. O. P. Senators more freedom to use their new ingenuity in trying to trip up the Democrats instead of looking to the top for all the ideas. Younger Republicans have complained that in the past Senator Taft tried to do everything himself.

Mr. Truman is beginning to be pressed privately by top leaders of labor to show more aggressive interest in getting Congress to repeal the Taft-Hartley Act. The President is inclined to let the Democrats in Congress handle the job without sustained pressure from the White House.

Maurice Tobin, Secretary of Labor, is running into serious trouble in his effort to bring about a return of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service to the Department of Labor. Secretary Tobin is far from sure that he can have this Service back again, with Republican votes in the Senate almost solid against return and several Democratic votes tending to the Republican side of the issue.

Amarillo Center Expects Increase In Spring Semester Attendance

Breaking records seems to be a favorite pastime with enrollment figures at the Amarillo Center of West Texas State and this coming semester appears to be no exception.

School officials are planning for an even greater enrollment than in the fall when 449 persons signed up for work. This was 54 per cent over the previous record.

Spring Semester of West Texas State Opens on Tuesday

New students, transfers and students who missed pre-registration will enroll February 1 at Burton Gymnasium for the spring semester. Registration will begin at 8 in the morning. Transcripts of high school or college work must be in the hands of Frank Morgan, Registrar, before the date of registration. Classes will begin Wednesday, February 2.

T. S. Stevenson, Jr., and Elwood Shero were in Oklahoma City, Okla. Monday and Tuesday of this week to attend the Pontiac New Car announcement meeting which was held in the Silver Glade Room of the Skirvin Tower Hotel. Eighteen different models were shown at this special new car preview, which was attended by Pontiac dealers from all over this part of the country and parts of Oklahoma.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bretton went to Cheyenne, Wyo. on Sunday night where they were called by the death of Mr. Bretton's father.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Mickey and family visited relatives in Plainview Sunday.

Registration for the spring semester will be had on the evening of January 31, from seven to nine-thirty. Students will receive printed instructions for procedure as they arrive. Regular full time classes begin at seven o'clock Tuesday night, February 1.

Thirty-two faculty members will be on hand to assist in signing up the students. Dr. Roy Boger is Dean of the Center.

The planned number of courses per department is as follows: Art 5, Business Administration 16, Education 8, English 4, Geography 4, History 1, Home Economics 1, Math 4, Speech 5.

One of the interesting features about courses taught at the Center is that one never knows just what courses may be given. A large number of classes are just made up if enough requests for the particular subject comes in. It is the policy of the Center to see that these requests are met.

Visitors Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Durwood Brown and Randy were Mr. and Mrs. Claude Weathersby from Hereford and Mrs. C. W. Terry from Post. Mrs. Weathersby is a sister of Mrs. Brown, and Mrs. Terry is her mother.

Visitors in the home of Mrs. C. O. Cooper on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Allen and Neil Cooper from Midland.

Robert P. Tristram Coffin, Poet, Visits on Campus February 15-18

February 15 through the 18, Robert Tristram Coffin, noted poet, is to be on the college campus, mingling informally with the teachers and students and lecturing to small and large groups. Of course some may not be interested in this announcement or in his coming unless they are informed concerning this man's reputation and activity.

Mr. Coffin is a poet, and writer of fiction, biography and articles of many kinds; and, a lecturer who has appeared before more than 500 school audiences. According to Dr. B. F. Fronabarger, Mr. Coffin is comparable to James Whitcomb Riley, Eugene Fields, and Robert Frost, and in many ways resembles Walt Whitman and Carl Sandburg. He is known as a poet of the people and one who is not concerned with a show off in poetry of classic learning. It may interest some to know that in the recent issues of Gourmet Magazine he has two interesting articles dealing with the delights of breakfasts in different places. Mr. Coffin promises to be a wholesome surprise to those who think of the poet as an anemic monstrosity of humanity.

A quotation from his book, "The Substance That Is Poetry," from a recent collection will start properly an introduction to him as a poet.

"And in my more recent work, I have, I think, become more of an American and more of a believer in life. Those two things, by the way, seem to be tragically synonymous in these dark days of the world's history. Your poet, James Whitcomb Riley, believed in life abundantly, as he believed in good American local color, on corn shocks and on men's vowels. I have been growing into more of a poet of Maine, late years. And I like to think that Pine Tree people and Hoosiers have much in common. That is, they make much of little, they believe in people rather than politics or churches or new economic Jerusalem. They cannot think a thought without having cows and horses and ears of corn and freckle-faced people get all mixed in with their thinking.

"I have a definition of poetry—my best one—that runs like this: Poetry is the process of putting good things together. The best in rhythm, the clearest images, the most memorable of objects seen. But objects always. The things we can see, touch, hear, taste, and smell."

Hazlewood Presents Bill to Pay Off Debt Against Palo Duro

A bill has been introduced in the Texas legislature to appropriate $300,000 to pay off the debt against the Palo Duro State Park. Bonds were authorized by the last session of the legislature to make settlement on the debt. It was hoped at that time that the State Highway Commission would assume upkeep of the roads in the Park in order that great improvements might be made in Park facilities for the benefit of visitors.

The Highway Commission refused to take over the roads while the debt existed against the land and an entrance fee was charged.

The gross 1948 income of the Palo Duro State Park totaled $23,326.10, the auditor's report shows.

Of this amount $13,562.19 goes toward retiring the Parks' $300,000 bond indebtedness.

During the past year 13,805 cars carrying 51,488 passengers visited the Park. The cash income from admissions paid by these visitors was $11,674.75.

Here is the itemized statement of the cash concession receipts collected. These items are independent of paid admissions.

Itemized cash concession receipts as follows:

Cash sales at gate of candy, drinks,

THE AMERICAN WAY

Let's Not Shackle Our Youth

etc. $2,894.35.
Cash rentals of Cow-Camp cabins $594.00.
Cash rentals of rim cabins $851.05.
Cash rentals of horses $2,957.10.
Cash sales at Coronado Lodge $2,254.85.
Total gross cash concessions $9,551.35.

Ten per cent of the cash concession is applicable on the bond indebtedness. The total receipts for pasture rental is $2,100. All of this is applicable on the indebtedness. The amount paid the concessioner was $9,763.01.

WT Band Gives First Concert

The West Texas State Concert Band made its first appearance of the Winter Season in a formal concert given Tuesday evening, January 18, in the Administration Auditorium.

A benefit concert to be given at the Canyon High School will be early in February. The band's next formal concert will be given during the first week of March. This concert will be the second of a series of four concerts that the band has on its agenda for the remainder of the year here on the campus. The band is, however, planning a concert tour of the surrounding towns of the Panhandle, tentatively scheduled for the second week of March.

The audience indicated its approval of the band by the large ovations which greeted the playing of each of the numbers. The audience was particularly appreciative of the band's soloist, William Latson, who played "Recitative and Prayer" from Berlioz' Grand Symphony for Band.

Included in the program were some of the very hardest of the band transcriptions from the literature of the Orchestra, notably the "Phedre Overture" and the "Gavotte" from Prokofiev's Classical Symphony. There were also original works for military band on the program, "First Suite in E Flat" being the most outstanding in this class.

JOCKEYING FOR POSITION

"Boy, if I don't get rid of this cold soon, I'll be a dead one," moaned the jockey to the exercise boy.

"Didja do what the doctor said?" asked the boy.

"Naw," replied the jockey. "The sign on his door said '10 to 1' and I wouldn't monkey with a long shot like that."

A light, inexpensive iceless container known as Insulpak has been developed for air-freighting fresh-caught salt water fish to Midwestern cities. The cost will be only slightly more than railway express and the fish will arrive three times as fresh—two or three days instead of eight or 12 days after catching.

School Awaits Court Verdict

According to Dr. James P. Cornette, only one more step seems to be necessary before the State College Building Fund will be cleared by the courts.

He made this statement upon notice that the group fighting the bill has only until about January 26 in which to file for rehearing before the Texas Supreme Court. A recent court decision rendered the Amendment proceedings legal.

"I believe," said Dr. Cornette, "that even if a rehearing is filed that the Supreme Court will uphold the lower court's decision. Of course the plaintiffs could take the case to the Supreme Court of the United States but this is doubtful because of the money it would take to carry on the fight."

If and when the amendment is freed, the actual appropriation of the money will be turned over to the Attorney General. Further scattering of the money and the determination of its ultimate use will be up to the State Board of Regents.

The money, accumulated taxes from Soldier's Benefits, will be allotted in installments of ten years—each appropriation to each school based upon enrollment for each preceding ten-year period.

"So far," states Dr. Cornette, "only the new president's home has been given official sanction. Partial sanction has been given to construction upon the new field house although final decision will be held up temporarily while we confer with the college architect."

Portalatin Family Are On Campus After Reunion---From Puerto Rico

The newest addition to the Puerto Rican family attending WT are Mrs. Manuel Portalatin and daughter, Enid, seated with Manuel, who began his work here in 1947. During the Christmas holidays, Manuel flew to New Orleans from here and she flew from Puerto Rico to New Orleans, where they met and came back to Canyon. The Portalatins live in Trailer No. 6 in Hill Courts.

Manuel, Gloria, and Enid Portalatin are together again. The Puerto Rican family was reunited here at West Texas State late last month.

Manuel Portalatin, junior, pre-medical student from Camuy, Puerto Rico, started school here as a freshman in 1947. His wife, Gloria, and their year-old daughter, Enid, arrived here December 26. They plan to stay until Manuel completes his studies. Gloria will attend classes starting next fall. She will be a junior, having attended college in Puerto Rico for two years. She later taught school until she came to West Texas to join her husband.

Settled comfortably in one of the G. I. trailer houses,

Gloria says she likes the weather here much better than the warm climate of her homeland. Manuel prefers the mild winter in Puerto Rico to the icy blasts of winter on the Texas Plains. Puerto Rico maintains a temperature of 65 to 85 degrees the year round. Manuel has a hard time keeping the baby in the house, for she seems to naturally take to the cold weather.

They plan to send Enid to school in the United States until she reaches high school, then send her to school in Puerto Rico. They have hopes that she too will attend a college in the U. S.

They are trying to teach the baby to speak English instead of Spanish, but Manuel says she has a language all her own now. He thinks it is possibly Chinese.

Gloria's brother, a pre-dental student, Juan F. Perello, also attends school here. This is his first semester at W. T. His wife plans to start school here in June. Soon practically the entire family will become students of West Texas State.

Juan's cousin is expected to start to school here next semester. They plan to share a room in Tierra Blanca Hall.

After Manuel and Juan finish Medical and Dental school in the states they plan to return to Puerto Rico to practice. Both are going to school on the G. I. Bill. Manuel spent a year and a half in the U. S. Army, stationed most of the time in Cuba. Juan spent three years in the service, serving in Africa, Italy,

France, Germany, Corsica and several other islands.

Gloria says the fashions in Puerto Rico are much the same as they are here. The new long skirts are popular there, also. Both Manuel and Gloria seem to think that they are judged more by Mexican standards than American or other Latin American countries.

They all have a hard time with the English language. The English language is a required course in all Puerto Rican elementary schools, but the courses taught there are scanty and do not give a very thorough understanding of the language. Since they plan for their daughter to spend most of her school life in the States, they think it would be much easier for her to learn to talk English first. They have taught her a few words already. She knows more English words now than she does Spanish, though probably she will learn both languages together, for Manuel and Gloria speak Spanish to each other at home.

They are trying to finish school as soon as possible, attending classes the year round, so that the men can go back to Puerto Rico to start a practice.

They all say that they like it very much in the United States, and enjoy going to school here, but, of course, they are also both very anxious to return to their native Puerto Rico.

No Word on the Proposed Domestic Relations Court

Judge Burney Slack stated Tuesday that the Commissioners Court had received no word on the proposed Domestic Relations Court which is being proposed in the legislature by Potter County. It is proposed that Randall county join in this court due to the fact that so many Amarillo citizens live in Randall county.

Judge Slack states that his office handles only about a half dozen juvenile cases during the year. Divorce cases take up much of the District Court time. However, if the new court takes over divorce proceedings there will be little business left for the District Judge.

No proposal has been made to Randall county regarding the division of expenses of operation.

Hazlewood Predicts Legislature To Pass Redistricting Bill

Senator Grady Hazlewood is of the opinion that the legislature will pass a redistricting bill and will not allow this work to be done by a commission. A constitutional amendment authorized by the voters last year provided that in case the legislature failed in its duty that a commission would do the work.

However it is unlikely that action will be taken on redistricting before 1951. The federal census will be taken in 1950 and figures will be available by that time.

The Panhandle should win one new senator and West Texas will win 10 representatives at the expense of East Texas is the opinion of Senator Hazlewood.

Photostatic Copies of Old Issues of News From Chicago

Fred A. Emory of Chicago has sent to The News photostatic copies of the paper, dates May 21, 1932 and June 23, 1932, together with the copy of an Amarillo News story on the Palo Duro State Park on May 17, 1932.

Stories included in the copy were regarding the opening of the Palo Duro State Park.

There had been no improvements in the Park at the time these stories were published, but huge crowds gathered at the rim to look down on the beauties of the Canyon.

Mr. Emory has devoted more time to the development of the Park than any other person.

Chamber Commerce Directors to Hold Organizations Meet

Directors of the Chamber of Commerce will meet Thursday night at the City Hall at which time officers will be elected for the coming year.

The directors will outline the year's work.

Owing to bad weather last week, not all of the new directors could be at the meeting of the Chamber last week.

Dr. Ruth Lowes at Dallas Conference

Dr. Ruth Lowes, professor of Education at West Texas State College, attended a meeting of the Texas Association for Supervision and Curriculum Development in Dallas last week. One hundred supervisors and school curriculum consultants from over the state attended.

A. B. Duncan, Jr., who is attending S. M. U. in Dallas, was here last week-end visiting in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Duncan.

Mrs. C. S. Sanford attended the funeral of her sister, Miss Alice Wootton, in Big Spring last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Shirley Pitts and family attended the dedication service of the new Methodist Church in Silverton on Sunday.

Mark Hill from Crowell, is a new employee at Cooper's Market.

Henry Wallace Is Of Opinion Truman Declares for War

Henry Wallace has blasted the inaugural speech of President Truman.

"It comes closer to a declaration of war than the inaugural address of any peacetime President in our history."

"Truman's statement that capitalism and Communism cannot live together in one world makes war the only inevitable alternative," believes the former Progressive Party presidential nominee.

Wallace seems to be about the only one to disagree with the foreign policy declaration of the President.

Public Power Advocates inside U. S. Government departments insist "electricity reserves" are dangerously scanty. But the Edison Electric Institute, representing 90% of the industry, points out that last month the industry met the greatest electrical load in history with an overall excess of generating capacity. Narrowest squeak, paradoxically, was in the Pacific Northwest where Federal power projects have been concentrated to amplify supply—there the power load exactly equalled capacity.

Setting a good example for your children takes all the fun out of middle age.

Change in Management of District Office Southwestern Bell Is Made

COY A. MYERS

JOHN A. CORNELL

John A. Cornell, communications supervisor of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company at Fort Worth, has been appointed manager for Canyon and six other exchanges in this vicinity, with headquarters at Plainview, according to O. O. Thomas, district manager of the company here.

Mr. Cornell will replace Coy A. Myers, local telephone manager for the past two and one-half years, who has been named communications supervisor at Wichita Falls. The change is effective immediately, Thomas said.

Mr. Cornell's telephone career began in Dallas in 1941 as a cable splicer in the plant department. In 1943, he went to Waco, and shortly afterward was promoted to commercial representative in the company's Waco business office.

The following year, Cornell enlisted in the U. S. Navy and was assigned to submarine duty in the Pacific. During the war, he participated in many undersea patrols and assisted in the rescue of American flyers shot down at sea. The submarine on which he served was one of a chain of American U-boats stretching from Saipan almost to Japan, forming a "life-line" which saved the lives of many airmen forced down at sea during the intensive B-29 air raids on the Japanese mainland.

For this war service, Mr. Cornell holds the Asiatic-Pacific theatre ribbon and the Philippine Liberation medal.

At the end of the war, he was discharged with the rank of Seaman 1-c and returned to telephone work at Waco in 1946. He later served for a short period at Tyler, and in 1947 was transferred to the company's division headquarters offices at Fort Worth. In March of last year, he was promoted to communications supervisor there, his position until the present appointment.

Mr. and Mrs. Cornell and their two children, a daughter 8, and a year-old son, will move to Plainview to make their home as soon as arrangements can be made.

Mr. Myers, who has been manager here since July, 1946, has been a long time resident of this vicinity. He came to Plainview in 1904 with his parents and resided there for 18 years. During his telephone career, which began in 1932, he saw service in Fort Worth and Wichita Falls, and during the war was Camp Telephone Manager at Sheppard Field. In 1946, he was appointed manager for Canyon and the surrounding exchanges, his position until the present time.

Mr. and Mrs. Myers will move to Wichita Falls soon.

Twelve hours of work in 1949, if 1948's rates continue will purchase a week's food for the average wage-earner's family, according to the National Industrial Conference Board—in 1914 it took 30 hours to buy the same amount of food.

When I was a boy in the eighth grade in Memphis, Tenn., on a Saturday I would get to go uptown and, in order to save carefare, I'd walk. The nickle saved meant another picture show—(admission was only five cents in those distant days).

A few weeks ago, back in Memphis on a visit, I decided I'd see just how far that was—so I walked from town out to where we used to live. It took almost 50 minutes.

The little house is still standing; it has been painted a different color and the front porch has been screened in but otherwise it seems the same. Across the street had been a wooded area and some of the old trees under which I used to play are there yet.

P. S. I rode the street car back to town. And it reminded me of old times—I had to wait so long and had to stand up.

Time brings changes and destroys the old landmarks. The up-the-alley printing office, where the statistical daily was issued and for which I copied the public records while attending Central high school, is gone. The Phoenix Athletic Club where I viewed many a rousing fight—gone. I looked in vain for the old county jail where once I'd seen a mob turned back by a single officer. The old, rattling iron bridge over the creek at Mill Street—gone. The dusty book store, (with its many shelves filled with old volumes), which you entered and from the gloom there emerged an old, stooped man who grudgingly switched on one sickly-yellow light for you to examine a section, took your money silently and seemed to be on the verge of snarling as he handed you the book and the change—store and dealer, gone.

Mark Twain said of an acquaintance, "He is one of those narrow-minded men who think there is only one way to spell a word."

Venereal Diseases Being Treated at 3 Texas Centers

Throughout America men and women have become conscious of the necessity for fighting the menace of venereal diseases, and it is a matter of pride to public health workers that the entire nation now joins in the observance of National Social Hygiene Day, which in this year is dated February 2.

Dr. George W. Cox, State Health Officer, states that at the present time three rapid treatment centers are being operated in Texas, located at San Antonio, Waco and Rocky Mount, and that a total of approximately 15,000 patients per year are being treated in these centers. Ninety-six venereal disease clinics are also in operation throughout the state, and these clinics as well as the rapid treatment centers are primarily for the treatment of indigent and semi-indigent persons referred by physicians or local health units.

In the past two years a blood testing survey of more than 80,000 Texans has disclosed that between seven and ten per cent of the number had positive tests for syphilis and that a large majority of them did not know they had the disease and had never had medical treatment for it. This vast reservoir of untreated syphilis is one reason for its continued spread, and it is a notable achievement in furthering public health that approximately 98% of these persons have been brought under treatment so that they can no longer spread the disease. More than 43,000 contacts have been investigated and placed under treatment until no longer infectious. A continuous educational program carried on by the State Department of Health is another effective means for controlling venereal disease among our people, and reducing the number of crippled, blind and paralyzed persons who are annually the victims of syphilis and other venereal diseases.

Possibly the most dangerous threat to free enterprise in current legislative plans is in a bill to authorize the Reconstruction Finance Corp. to lend $15 billion to the states to build and operate industrial plants any time RFC decides private enterprise is not expanding (or borrowing) fast enough. Such lending powers could have a completely socialized state as their end-product if vigilance isn't exercised, according to President Evans Woolen, Jr. of the American Bankers Association. He declares that RFC lending activities were created for an emergency but that Administration over-use of them is making them a routine part of national policy.

Smudges can put an iron curtain around all of us as effectively as government can. The ignorance that I think is the most dangerous is our own.—Associate Justice Robert H. Jackson, U. S. Supreme Court.

Veterans Will Get Rebate on Insurance Policies Early Date

Randall County veterans can expect rebate on National Service Life Insurance premiums to begin some time after March 31, according to Rhea Smith, county service officer.

Some checks may be in the mail by June, said Smith, but the majority of refunds will be made during the latter part of the year.

Smith said rebate will be in proportion to the amount paid in by each veteran. It will run between 20 and 25 per cent of the amount paid, he said.

For an illustration, take the hypothetical cases of Pvt. John Doe who enlisted in the Army Jan. 1, 1942, when he was 18 years old, and Pvt. Sam Jones, who enlisted on the same date at the age of 50.

John got his insurance at the lowest possible rate, $6.40 a month, while Sam had $12.70 lopped off his paycheck each month.

If the Veterans Administration refunds 25 per cent of the amount paid in as has been indicated, John will receive $1.60 rebate for every month he kept his policy in force, and Sam will receive approximately $3.17.

Smith pointed out that the older veteran will still have paid more for his protection than the younger men. Rebates will be made only to veterans who kept policies in force for as long as 90 days.

Smith did a booming insurance business for the government during 1948. He reinstated approximately 3½ million dollars worth of National Service Life Insurance.

GI insurance, he said, was originally written as eight-year term insurance and must be reinstated at the termination of each term. Veterans will be notified 60 days prior to termination date and will have an opportunity either to renew their policies, paying premiums at their attained age rate, or to convert their policies.

Probably the reason so many people never learn the value of money is that they never get enough research material.

Yes, party lines have "stretched" hard-to-get telephone equipment in a time of shortages and a big demand for service.

PENS—AND WHY THEY ARE
To students of today a fountain pen is taken for granted, but did you ever stop to think how the fountain pen originated?

When man first began to express his thoughts in writing, he did so on a marble slab and used iron as his pen. Later he put wax over wood or stone and used sharpened bones as pens.

Then paper was made from grasses, and small rushes and reeds were used in writing.

When real paper was invented all previous pens were too hard and softer material was needed so quills and feathers of geese and swans came into use. As the points became dull they were sharpened with knives and thus the word "pen-knife" came into being.

In 1835, after repeated tries which brought only expensive pens, the fountain pen of today became known. This was the self-filling pen still used.

Now that the origination of fountain pens is uncovered take a look at your present "ink-filled cylinder" and think of the days of old when they really had a hard time writing.

Eagles Win Consolation Title

Bill Cleavinger Represents Eagles on All-Tourney

Canyon plays host to the Dumas Demons Friday night with game time to be at 7:30.

Canyon High's Eagles came back from Tulla's annual Invitational Tournament with the Consolation trophy. They met the Hereford Whitefaces in their first game downing them by a score of 36-26. Joe Abbott held top scoring honors for the victors with 11 points to his credit. Patterson led the Whitefaces with 14 tallies.

Canyon clashed with Tulla at 9:30 Friday night with the Hornets coming out on top by a margin of 6 points. Berhends led the victors with 15 tallies and again Joe Abbott topped his teammates with 12 points. The Hornets held the lead all during the game with the final score 31-25.

The Eagles clawed the Tahoka Bulldogs to a narrow 29-28 victory Saturday morning and won the right to play for the Consolation trophy. The score was tied up at half time 17-17 but in the third quarter the "purple and white" edged into the lead and held it the rest of the game. Richard Walters led the Eagles with 18 points.

Consolation Game

The Eagles and the Hereford Whitefaces tangled again, this time in the Consolation game with the Eagles nosing them out by a 1 point margin, 33-32. The Eagles took the lead early in the first quarter and held it all through the remaining periods. Canyon led Hereford 15-8 the first quarter and 24-19 at half time.

In the next two periods Canyon added 9 points while Hereford increased their score by 13 tallies but were unable to edge the Eagles out. The final score was 33-32.

Joe Abbott held top scoring honors with 7½ points per game. Billy Cleavinger had a 7 point average. Bruce Winn, 5½ per game; Jerre Inman 5 points and Richard Walters was close behind with 4½ tallies per game.

Billy Cleavinger, center, made all-tournament team. He was presented with a gold basketball at the close of the tourney.

Homemakers Obtain Sewing Machines

Two latest model electric sewing machines arrived in the Canyon High Home Economics Department. They are the cabinet type, made of walnut. This makes a total of seven sewing machines for the department.

Other new improvements for the department will be made in the future. These include new book cases, end tables, possibly a new stove or two, and some new materials for the living room.

"These two machines were badly needed because in some classes there were five or six girls to a machine. Every homemaker girl is proud of them," says Mrs. Camilla Bell, homemaker instructor.

Goddess Depicts Teams' Efforts

Holding aloft a golden wreath, the center goddess, standing on her pedestal above two girl basketball players, depicts the story of the Eaglettes winning first place at the Tulla Tournament. Done in brown and gold the trophy bears a nameplate saying, "Tulla Tournament, 1949, first place." Two gold stars shine on either side of the nameplate, two girl basketball players posed above.

One player stands atop and is prepared to shoot for a goal from the top of the pedestal, circled in a gold nameplate. No engraving has been done on this as yet to tell of the Eagles placing third in the tournament.

Both trophies were displayed on a table in the main hall all day Monday.

Help Keep Canyon Clean!

Well, gang, here I am with all the dirt. Pull up an ear and listen.

Mary Elizabeth Jennings was with Bill Miller Saturday night. I hear she has been asked for a date by a number of boys. How about that Mary Elizabeth?

Nelda Jo Gillham and Fay Hand, Marion McReynolds and Frank Heare, and Helen Borden and Gary Clark were married recently. Best wishes and the best of luck.

It seems Marselete Wilson went to W. T. High to catch a boy. Is that right, Marselete?

Laura Davis and Bob Hembree were seen at the boxing matches the other night.

Done Stone has been calling Fay Gunter without much results. I hear she is holding out for Bill Hall. How about it Fay?

Charlene Rogers, Tommie Middleton, Donald McDonald and Barbara Glanton were seen together at church Sunday.

Earl Simon was with an Amarillo girl Saturday night. Why don't you give the Canyon girls a break, Earl?

Lois Collins and Willis Jackson were together Sunday night.

And with that I leave you until next week.

Next Lyceum Is Memory Wizard

William Wallace, memory wizard, is referred to by scientists as a man having that rare ability as "eidetic imagery."

Wallace was born near Hazleton, Pennsylvania. His boyhood was normal, except that he enjoyed school! Although he was not an exceptional student he liked arithmetic, geography and history, but not grammar. He memorized page upon page of home work. Once in class, however, under the pressure of examinations his mind would frequently go blank, but when class was over and pressure removed, the temporarily forgotten would return to his consciousness.

When Wallace was thirteen his mother died; that was the beginning of independent action and self-support. He sold newspapers and did other odd jobs. At eighteen he left his hometown to seek fame and fortune in New York City, there he became a salesman of cosmetics, until depression brought business to a standstill. He now had a wife and two children who depended upon him for support.

While he and his wife were attending a vaudeville show for the first time he saw a memory expert at work in public and he decided he would do that. Just to see if he could do it, he decided to memorize the world's largest mail order catalog, this was in 1941 when the catalog contained about 1100 pages. The catalog was memorized from cover to cover after a total of twenty hours of intense concentration.

Mr. Wallace has worked out a program of memory feats and stunts that is grand entertainment for every age. He has been featured in school assemblies all over the United States with outstanding success.

P. E. Classes Receive Beauty Instruction

"Self-beautification will be a new unit introduced into the physical education classes this semester. Some of the phases of good grooming to be taken up are: Hair styles and the care of the hair; make-up application and use; style and colors of clothes; the wear and the care of the shoes; cleanliness; posture; and the proper carriage of the body.

"These lessons will be given once a week during the spring term. At the other periods regular scheduled work will be followed. Authorities from the college will contribute their time to assist in the teaching of these facts," states Miss Paula Frazier of the physical education department. "We are hoping to obtain the services of a beauty operator who will give the girls a few simple lessons in the art of shampooing and setting hair."

Seniors Heading Attendance List

The senior class leads the high school in the attendance records with an average of 97.5%. The 9th and 7th grades tie for second place with 96.9% each. Following are the 10th and 8th grades with 96.6% and the 11th with 96%.

Eaglettes Take Tournament

Davis, Dickerson Will Edit Paper

"Small town girl makes good." Laura Davis, second semester editor of The Eagle's Tale, is an example of one who rises from a hard-work level to one of responsibility. She moved from a small town in Texas called Dawn to this bustling city of Canyon, while in the sixth grade. Laura really began her journalism career while a Junior in CHS, where she, along with Ema Gene Zachry, fulfilled their duties as Exchange Editors for the complete year. Laura is a senior this year and was assistant editor the first semester. She is a member of the Quill and Scroll and of the FHA Clubs. Laura's duties as editor will be to make assignments of stories, assign headlines of different types, and make the dummy of the page.

Fay Dickerson began her assistant editor duties last Monday with the editing of the first second-semester paper. This is Fay's senior year in CHS and her first year to take Journalism. She was Chief Copy Reader last year. Honors attained by Fay during high school are: A Cappella Choir two years, Twirler for the drum corps three years, and for the CHS band one year, and she has been a member of FHA four years. Fay's duties are to supervise the writing of stories and headlines and assist the editor.

Filling a newly created office, News Editor, is Suzanne Stephenson, a senior and first year Journalism student. She was Exchange Editor last semester along with Sue Dickerson. Suzanne's duties are to supervise the gathering of news in the grade and high schools. She has been a member of the A Cappella Choir one year, all girl choir one year, FHA three years, SFC Representative in '46-'47.

Society Sue

This business of writing Society Sue gives one a lift. Just think, all one has to do is to stand in the hall and look for pretty dresses or skirts. What an assignment!

How about that red and gray plaid shirt and those softly tailored gray slacks that June Jennings wore last Monday? Those gay colors will live any dreary day!

And did you notice the pink and blue sweater of Teddy Howell's? Of course you did. How could one help seeing how those soft colors emphasize her dark hair and eyes.

Now let's talk about those little purple numbers that the Dickerson twins wore last week. Two place suits they are, with solid jackets and plaid color skirts. Little eye-catchers, I'd call them.

Swish! Swish! So Nelda Ruthardt's coat of her new gray suit cut ripples in the air. It's one of those latest creations and a rather "sweet-air-fair."

Don't let's forget the boys. Cast your eyes on the black and white plaid sport coat that Billy Samples hopes to defeat the cold weather in. Just the garment to dazzle girls.

Geneva Devin certainly is no slouch in that tomato-red suit. It is an addition to any fashion column.

Ford, Foster Are All-Tournament

Eaglettes Beat Happy in Decisive Finals at Tulla

History repeated itself at Tulla Saturday night when the Canyon Eaglettes won the annual Tulla basketball tournament for the second time in two years. They also placed two players on the all-tournament team, Mary Sue Foster, guard, and Bobby Ford, forward. They received gold basketballs Saturday night following the final games. The Eaglettes played two games to get to the finals which were held Saturday night.

In an overwhelming victory over the Nazareth Swifts, the Canyon Eaglettes won their first game of the tournament Thursday night. The score at half time was 20-10 with a final score of 46-32, both in Canyon's favor. Janey Forester was high pointer with 24 baskets and Bobby Jean Ford was next with 14 points to her credit. Huseman made 15 tallies for Nazareth followed by Brackman with 7.

The Eaglettes second victory was opposite the strong Dumas sextette. Canyon let fly both a strong defensive and offensive attack which defeated the Demonettes and gave them the heavy side of the score, 33-30. The Eaglettes were behind for the first three quarters but rallied in the last quarter for a victorious exit. Bobby Ford led her teammates in high scoring honors, with 14 points to her credit. Janey Forester followed with 10 points while Dorothy Butler made 9.

After defeating Dumas, the Eaglettes found themselves in the finals Saturday night with the Happy Cowgirls. The only time the score was close was at the end of the first quarter when the score stood 5-3 in Canyon's favor. In the final three quarters the Eaglettes ran up the score and when the game ended the Eaglettes were tournament winners with the score 44-18. Bobby Ford was high pointer for the second time with 22 points to her credit while Janey Forester followed with 15 tallies.

Janey Forester received special mention for being high point girl of the tournament with 49 tallies.

The Eaglettes' next game will be with Dumas in the Grade school gymnasium Friday night.

Projectors and Screens Are Gift From PTA to School

Two projectors of the slide-fill type have been received for the Canyon Public Schools, also, arriving is a new picture screen size 60 inches by 60 inches. Another screen of this same size, and opaque projector, will arrive this coming week.

All of this equipment is being purchased by the Canyon Parent-Teacher's Association for the use of the school.

"We are planning to build a slide and film strip library in order that teachers may have the opportunity of illustrating different phases of teaching material in this attractive manner," says Superintendent E. A. Wooten. "This contribution will be stimulating and inspirational to our active visual aid program in both elementary and high school."

Marselete Wilson and Bobby King have withdrawn from CHS to attend school at W. T. High.

Advocates Forget Cost Government Health Insurance

A proposal for compulsory government health insurance is in the news again. It will be one of the major issues to be considered by Congress this year. Of the arguments used in support of it, one of the most generally effective seems to be that it is often a serious burden to meet the cost of an unexpected hospital or doctor bill.

That is true enough—but it does not explain why government insurance, which would cost the taxpayers $6,000,000,000 a year and perhaps more, is the way out. The proponents of the scheme seem to totally ignore the fact that a large percentage of the American people have protected themselves against this exigency. They have done it through one or more of the many voluntary prepayment plans, all of which are within the financial reach of the average worker and his family.

The growth made by these plans is phenomenal. The first came into being in Oregon in 1906. Initially, during the trial and error period, progress was relatively slow. Then, some years ago, a major expansion took place. One plan alone has well over 30,000,000 subscribers, most of whom pay the moderate charges through payroll deductions. And the benefits given have been steadily broadened.

In the light of all this, and looking at the issue from a purely practical viewpoint, there seems to be no reason for saddling the country with another enormous tax—and, in the process, giving a political group a half nelson on the medical profession.

Perfect Example of Way Supply, Demand Works

During the various protracted periods in late years, it has looked as if there would be no end to price increases. Slowly but steadily, the prices charged for practically everything went up and up, with not even a momentary downturn, and there was no relief in sight. Many people, concerned with what was happening to their savings and income, came to the conclusion that the public was being exploited—that certain vague "interests" were deliberately raising prices for their own profit. Out of this belief came much of the agitation for a renewal of price control by government fiat.

The truth is, of course, that in a competitive economy no one can "fix" the price of any commodity in general use. And prices don't keep on going up unless supply and demand force them to do so. During the latter part of last year, there was an interesting and significant change in the meat situation. The price of meat stopped climbing, held its own briefly, then swung downward. By the end of the year, the general wholesale price of all meats had declined an average of about 19 per cent from the summer peak. And that, as anyone will admit, is a very large drop.

The main reason for this change in the meat price situation was a better balance, from the consumer's standpoint, between supply and demand. Plenty of meat was available and it had to be moved and sold. And, as is always the case, it was sold for what it would bring. The millions of people who buy meat were the ones who determined the price.

As a matter of fact, meat is an almost perfect example of the competitive system—all the way from the farms and ranges, through the packers and processors, and to the butcher shops. And the most apparent of the many virtues of that system is that it gives us what we want, in abundance, and at the most reasonable cost.

President Truman Covered All His Campaign Promises in Speech at Inauguration, and Very Little More

Inaugural Photo

This photo of President Truman, made by the U. S. Army Signal Corps, was the one selected by members of the 1949 Inaugural Committee for use on the official inaugural program.

An Indian guide in the Pacific Northwest was given a watch by an appreciative New York banker for favors received. One day the watch stopped ticking and the Indian took off the back to see if he could locate the trouble. He poked around in the works and finally found a dead bug. Hurling the watch away in disgust, he grunted: "No wonder him no work. Engineer dead."

By 1952, I hope to be retired in a cabin in the woods.—Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Dividing the Spoils

view with enthusiasm that additional $4,000,000,000 be raised by new taxes, to be levied mainly on business. Never in history has our economy been so geared to high employment and maximum industrial production. Even a moderate depression would have devastating effects on government revenues, and on our ability to finance European aid, a huge defense program, and similar costly measures. It is clearly in the interests of the government itself to keep the business world in as high a state of confidence as possible. As many economists have been pointing out, in testimony before government agencies, profits are nowhere near as great as mere dollar figures may indicate when present day costs of maintaining and expanding industry are taken into consideration. So, if more taxes are levied, it is very likely that the individual, as well as business will have to bear a part of the burden.

In any event, it should be realized, on both sides of the fence, that the Truman program envisions great and fundamental changes in American life. It is a program which sanctions a more powerful centralized government than we have ever accepted in peacetime—and which must burden in one way or another the daily existence of everyone. It seems certain that Congress will do a great deal of hard thinking before it gives approval of any sizeable part of it.

The Senate should at least change its rules to allow 90% of its members to force a vote any time. It is not fair to leave the country at the mercy of a hung jury.—Sen. Arthur Vandenberg (R-Mich.).

With Newfoundland added, the Dominion of Canada becomes larger than Europe, although a great deal less trouble.

Socialism Not Sure Cure For Ills of Nation

I once saw a little boy putting stones on the rails of a streetcar track. He wanted to see what would happen. Before anyone could correct him, the car came along. The motorman saw the stones in time to stop. He took the little boy home to his mother, across the street. No harm was done and the boy learned a good lesson.

Grown men in our government are today using a more deadly kind of stone to throw the United States we have known, off the track. Republican and Democratic political leaders are using socialistic and communistic booby traps such as public ownership of power, medicine, housing, etc., to build a superstate that will destroy individual opportunity and liberty itself, unless they are stopped and sent home, as the little boy was.

Can they plead ignorance, as did the little boy? Do they not realize that a socialized state will crush free enterprise, thereby destroying our American form of government and personal liberty?

There can be no free men and free opportunity when the individual has to turn to the state for subsistence. We are being fooled with false promises of "plenty" at the government trough, filled with swill paid for with the people's savings taken as taxes.

Will the people be as smart as the motorman?

Inauguration of President Great Day for Visitors

The inauguration of a President is one of our great and colorful national customs. Politics and partisanship are, for the moment at least, forgotten. The President is sworn in as chief magistrate of all the people, and all the people join in wishing him wisdom and success in carrying out the most onerous task that can be given to any man.

On inauguration day, multitudes of people from all parts of the country converge on Washington to see the spectacle and hear their President's message. The trip to the capital is a high moment in their lives. Few of us give the matter thought, but getting those people there, providing them with shelter, and taking them home, is a sizeable undertaking.

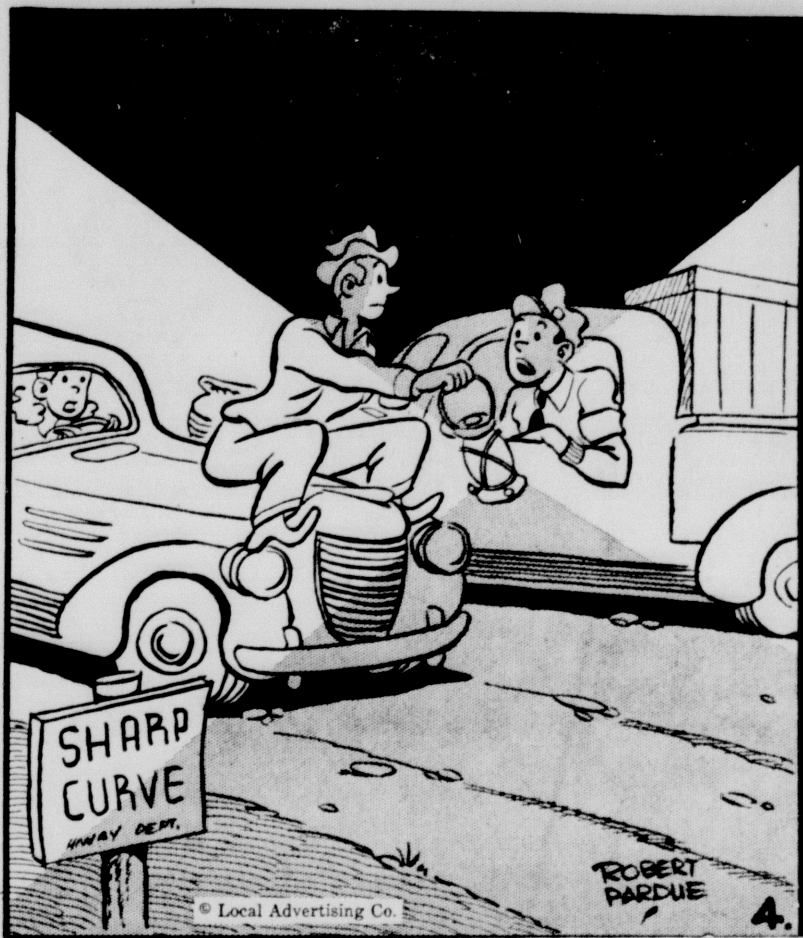

When Jefferson—the first President to take the oath in Washington—was inaugurated, contemporary accounts spoke of a "vast concourse" lining Pennsylvania Avenue. Actually, there were about a thousand observers. The primitive means of travel of the time made it exceedingly difficult for residents of distant parts to attend.

It is very different now. The American railroad industry has made it possible for any who wish, to go, whatever their point of origin. This year, it has set up a special committee to handle the arrangements. No one need stay home for lack of space on a train. Much of the traffic will be from points fairly close to Washington. Part of it will come from the far reaches of the continent. All special trains needed will be provided. Hundreds of Pullmans will be parked in the capital and used for sleeping accommodations during the inaugural period.

It is fitting that the railroads, our primary means of transportation, should play this role. No force did more to develop the nation. None can do so much to enable American citizens to see with their own eyes the inauguration of their next President.

It's great to be a teacher. You make so much money. My formula is: work hard, study your children, and listen to the radio at night. Don't forget the radio. Last week I won $10,000 on the Take It or Leave It program.—Gladys E. Guinn, Washington, D. C., school teacher.

Marriage is described as a state of mind, divorce a secession from the union that is sometimes arranged by confederates.
